Turn On Device

The device is initially turned off. User then presses the Power button, the device will be turned on

Turn Off Device

The device is initially turned on. User then presses the Power button, the device will be turned off.

Device Auto Off

The device is initially turned on. If no action (no button pressed or no session is running) within the time set (30 seconds), the device will turn off automatically.